

MEET THE Booths

THE BOOTH MUSEUM OF NATURAL HISTORY

What did the Victorians know about the natural world and how did they go about finding out more?

Mr. Booth or Mrs Booth will uncover for you the world of the Victorian collector. Use microscopes to investigate feathers and skeletons and find out how Victorian naturalists set about sorting, classifying and understanding the world in which they lived through discussion and activity.

This activity uses our current exhibition The Victorian Art of Taxidermy

COME AND MEET
MR OR MRS BOOTH,
REMARKABLE VICTORIANS!

Make a day of it!

The Meet the Booths session has been designed to complement our Victorian role-play session at Preston Manor. At the Manor your pupils apply for a servant's job and come dressed in role to be shown their duties by the house-keeper, butler or maid.
